LZS sumbang makanan warga emas positif Covid-19

SHAH ALAM: Makan nasi dengan hanya berlaukkan kicap dan telur sahaja demi meneruskan kelangsungan hidup.

Itulah keadaan pasangan warga emas bersama dua cucunya selama lebih seminggu akibat pandemik Covid-19 sebelum Lembaga Zakat Selangor (LZS) hadir memberikan bantuan semalam.

Menceritakan nasib menimpa mereka sekeluarga, Jatimah Mahat, 58, berkata, tiga ahli keluarganya iaitu anak perempuannya, menantu dan cucunya berusia tujuh bulan dibawa menjalani pemeriksaan dan kuarantin Covid-19 di Hospital Sungai Buloh (HSB).

Dia yang tinggal di Batu 13, Kampung Tengah, Puchong itu berkata, jangkitan tersebut diperoleh anak perempuannya di kilang tempat kerjanya di USJ, Subang Jaya.

"Susulan kejadian ini, kami sekeluarga yang merupakan kontak rapat terpaksa menjalani kuarantin di rumah sehingga menyukarkan mendapatkan bekalan makanan. Malah, saya juga terpaksa menjaga suami yang berusia 83 tahun yang uzur akibat sakit tua selain dua cucunya berusia tujuh dan 11 tahun.

"Saya bekerja pengawal keselamatan di sebuah sekolah dan tidak dibenarkan kerja oleh pihak majikan susulan merupakan kontak rapat.

"Oleh demikian, sepanjang tempoh seminggu lalu, kami hanya makan nasi dengan lauk kicap dan telur sahaja," katanya ketika dihubungi di sini, semalam.

Terdahulu, tular kisah keluarga ini di laman sosial apabila LZS turun menyalurkan bantuan kepada keluarga tersebut.

Bercerita lanjut, Jatimah berkata, dia sememangnya menerima bantuan dari LZS sebanyak RM400 sebulan dan sewa rumah RM750 juga ditanggung pihak berkenaan sejak 2010.

"Namun, saya bersyukur apabila kisah kami sekeluarga tular

terdapat beberapa pihak tampil menghantar bekalan makanan termasuk Masjid Nurul Iman, Kampung Tengah, Puchong.

"Bagaimanapun, kami terima keputusan apabila kini disahkan positif Covid-19 walaupun sepatutnya gelang pink dipotong hari ini. Buat masa ini, kami sekeluarga meneruskan kuarantin di rumah," ujarnya.

Orang ramai yang ingin menghulurkan bantuan boleh menghubungi Jatimah di talian 011-23201447.

Tolak adakan sidang khas Parlimen

Timbalan Speaker Dewan Rakyat tidak bersetuju dengan gesaan itu berhubung proklamasi darurat

Oleh AZIE YAHAYA

SHAH ALAM

Ahli Parlimen Pangerang, Datuk Seri Azalina Othman Said menolak permintaan Setiausaha Agung UMNO, Datuk Seri Ahmad Maslan yang meminta ahli Parlimen UMNO menyokong gesaan supaya sidang khas Parlimen diadakan berhubung proklamasi darurat. Katanya, sebagai Timbalan Speaker Dewan Rakyat, beliau adalah individu yang berpegang teguh kepada demokrasi berparlimen.

"Ia wajar ditekankan bahawa Fasal 14(1) ordinan yang baru saja dimasyhurkan oleh Yang di-Pertuan Agong, Al-Sultan Abdullah Ri'ayatuddin Al-Mustafa Billah Shah baru-baru ini memperuntukkan bahawa Parlimen hanya boleh dipanggil sebagaimana yang difikirkan sesuai oleh Yang di-Pertuan Agong.

"Oleh itu, pada hemat saya, kebarangkalian Yang di-Pertuan Agong memanggil satu persidangan Parlimen dalam masa terdekat ini ataupun membatalkan proklamasi dan ordinan tersebut sama sekali sangatlah tipis.

"Atas sebab-sebab yang dinyatakan di atas, maka dengan segala hormatnya saya menolak dan tidak bersetuju dengan permohonan persetujuan ke atas isu tersebut seperti mana yang diminta oleh YB Pontian melalui surat 18 Januari 2021," katanya dalam surat yang dihantar kepada Ahmad pada Selasa.

Sementara itu, Azalina turut mencadangkan kepada Seri Padua Baginda supaya satu Majlis Khas Parlimen (bipartisan) serta memohon wakil UMNO dapat dilantik secepat mungkin ke dalam Jawatankuasa Khas Bebas Darurat yang bakal ditubuhkan nanti.

AZALINA

"Mencadangkan kepada Yang di-Pertuan Agong untuk menubuhkan satu Majlis Khas Parlimen (bipartisan) bagi menasihati Seri Paduka Baginda berkenaan hasil pemantauan, penilaian dan perbincangan isu-isu berkaitan hak asasi dan kebebasan rakyat di bawah Perlembagaan Persekutuan.

"Majlis tersebut boleh terdiri daripada ahli-ahli Dewan Rakyat dan Dewan Negara daripada parti kerajaan dan pembangkang serta diberi kuasa untuk memanggil rakyat bagi memberikan pandangan, input dan cadangan.

"Semua ahli Dewan Rakyat dan Dewan Negara daripada UMNO yang merupakan ahli dalam Kumpulan Rentas Parti Parlimen Malaysia (KRPPM) dan juga Jawatankuasa Pilihan Khas (JPK) masih boleh memainkan peranan yang aktif supaya aktiviti-aktiviti KRPPM dan PJK masih terus giat dijalankan dan diteruskan.

"Ini memandangkan pada 12 Januari 2021, Yang di-Pertua Dewan Rakyat telah mengumumkan bahawa semua aktiviti kaukus, KRPPM atau PJK yang telah ditubuhkan masih boleh diteruskan," katanya.

Azalina berkata, kekusaran dan rintihan rakyat di kawasan Parlimen masing-masing boleh dibawa ke perhatian menteri UMNO secara rasmi dan tidak rasmi dalam mesyuarat Kabinet. Sementara itu, veteran DAP, Lim Kit Siang menyambut baik gesaan supaya sidang khas Parlimen diadakan memandangkan situasi Covid-19 di negara ini semakin buruk.

Ahli Parlimen Iskandar Puteri itu berkata, ia selaras dengan Seksyen 14(1)(b) Ordinan Darurat pertama pada 14 Januari lalu.

"Atas sebab ini, saya menyokong seruan supaya sidang Parlimen khas mengenai Covid-19 dipanggil, yang selari dengan Seksyen 14(1)(b) Ordinan Darurat pertama pada 14 Januari 2021, yang menyatakan 'Parlimen hendaklah dipanggil, diprorog dan dibubarkan pada suatu tarikh yang difikirkan sesuai oleh Yang di-Pertuan Agong.

"Marilah kita jadikan Parlimen sebagai contoh untuk semua rakyat Malaysia, tanpa mengira kaum, agama, politik, mahupun kawasan, untuk bersatu demi usaha menyelamatkan Malaysia daripada wabak Covid-19," katanya dalam satu kenyataan.

Perdana Menteri lawat Hospital Bersepadu MAEPS 2.0

KUALA LUMPUR - Perdana Menteri, Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin pada Selasa meluahkan masa melawat Hospital Bersepadu Taman Ekspo Pertanian Malaysia (MAEPS) 2.0 di Serdang dekat sini.

Beliau yang tiba pada jam 5.20 petang kemudian diiringi Menteri Kesihatan, Datuk Seri Dr Adham Baba ke sesi taklimat tertutup pengoperasian oleh Pengarah Kesihatan Selangor merangkap Komander Pusat Kawalan Bersepadu Covid-19 Wilayah Tengah, Datuk Dr Sha'ari Ngadiman.

Turut hadir ialah Menteri Besar Selangor, Datuk Seri Amirudin Shari dan Ketua Pengarah Agensi Pengurusan Bencana Negara (Nadma), Datuk Dr Aminuddin Hassim.

Selepas taklimat, Perdana Menteri dibawa melawat dan bertemu dengan pesakit yang sedang dirawat di Pusat Kuarantin dan Rawatan Covid-19 Berisiko Rendah (PKRC) yang berkonsepkan mesra keluarga sebelum meninjau sekitar hospital tersebut.

Hospital Bersepadu 2.0 dijangka beroperasi sepenuhnya pada 24 Januari ini bagi merawat pesakit Covid-19 kategori tiga, empat dan lima untuk distabilkan sebelum dihantar mendapatkan rawatan rapi di hospital.

Langkah itu bertujuan merawat pesakit Covid-19 kategori satu dan dua di PKRC MAEPS 2.0 yang tiba-tiba berubah kepada kategori tiga atau empat dan lima.

Hospital itu yang terletak di Dewan B menyediakan fasiliti yang sama dengan hospital lain, dilengkapi 30 katil bagi pesakit kategori tiga dan empat, selain sebuah khemah di luar dewan untuk kes transit unit rawatan rapi dengan 10 katil. - Bernama

Tiada wang, terputus makanan ketika kuarantin

Kisah pasangan warga emas, dua cucu yang kehabisan wang dapat perhatian ramai pihak

Oleh NUR FARHANA ABDUL MANAN

PUCHONG

Bagaikan sudah jatuh ditimpa tangga, menurut Jatimah, dia dan suaminya, Kastari Sirat, 83, bersama dua cucu terpaksa menjalani kuarantin di rumah kerana merupakan kontak rapat sebelum disahkan positif Covid-19.

Pada 7 Januari lalu, katanya, anak keduanya disahkan positif Covid-19 sebelum dimaklumkan menantu dan seorang cucunya yang berusia tujuh bulan turut positif virus berkenaan.

“Disebabkan menjadi kontak rapat kepada anak, saya, suami dan dua cucu membuat ujian saringan dan dipakaikan gelang pink serta diminta kuarantin di rumah.

Jatimah berkata, sepatutnya dia, suami dan dua cucu berusia tujuh dan 11 tahun ke hospital pada Isnin untuk membuka gelang pink tersebut.

Bagaimanapun, katanya, dia terkejut apabila dimaklumkan mereka berempat positif Covid-19 dan perlu terus kuarantin di rumah.

“Saya teruja kerana doktor beritahu jika tak ada terima panggilan telefon daripada hospital pada Sabtu dan Ahad, bermakna sudah bebas daripada virus serta akan dibukakan gelang pink semalam (Isnin).

“Rupanya kami masih positif virus itu dan perlu terus pakai gelang pink. Saya risau juga kerana sejak seminggu lalu demam dan kini hanya menunggu panggilan telefon daripada pihak hospital,” katanya.

Sementara itu, kisah Jatimah yang terputus bekalan makanan mendapat perhatian pihak masjid dan penduduk berhampiran yang berkunjung ke rumahnya dengan membawa makanan asas beberapa hari lalu.

“Ada orang masjid dan beberapa individu hantar makanan, Alhamdulillah, cuma saya wang sekarang.

“Semua duit yang ada habis digunakan untuk tambang pengangkutan ulang-alik ke hospital sebelum ini. Saya pula sudah tidak bekerja sebagai pengawal keselamatan sejak mula kuarantin pada 7 Januari lalu,” katanya yang merupakan penerima bantuan asnaf sebanyak RM400 dan bantuan sewa rumah sebanyak RM750 daripada Lembaga Zakat Selangor (LZS).

Sementara itu, LZS menerusi satu kenyataan memaklumkan Ketua Penolong Amil Kariah Masjid bersama Biro Kebajikan Masjid Nurul Iman, Kampung Tengah, Puchong sudah mengunjungi pasangan warga emas berkenaan bagi menyalurkan bantuan.

Katanya, bantuan itu diberikan sementara menunggu bantuan kewangan bulanan diproses.

“Kami mendoakan agar mereka semua diberi kesembuhan dan bebas dari pandemik ini. Terima kasih kepada seluruh pembayar zakat,” katanya.

PM pays a visit to MAEPS 2.0 Integrated Hospital

KUALA LUMPUR: Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin visited the Malaysia Agro Exposition Park Serdang (MAEPS) 2.0 Integrated Hospital near here, and spent some time meeting with patients recuperating there.

The Prime Minister, who arrived at 5.20pm yesterday, was accompanied by Health Minister, Datuk Seri Dr Adham Baba, to a closed-door briefing by Selangor Health director-cum-Central Region Covid-19 Unified Command Centre Covid-19 commander, Datuk Dr Sha'ari Ngadiman.

Also present were Selangor Menteri Besar, Datuk Seri Amirudin Shari and National Disaster Management Agency (Nadma) director-general, Datuk Dr Aminuddin Hassim.

After the briefing, the Prime Minister spent time visiting and meeting with patients at the Covid-19 Quarantine and Low-Risk Treatment Centre (PKRC) before touring the hospital.

The Integrated Hospital 2.0 will start operating on Jan 24 to treat Covid-19 patients in categories three, four and five to be stabilised before they are sent for intensive treatment to the hospital.

The move is aimed at treating Covid-19 patients from the PKRC MAEPS 2.0 in categories one and two who suddenly fall into categories three, four and five.

The hospital located in Hall B will provide the same facilities as in other hospitals and is equipped with 30 beds for patients in categories three and four while outside the hall, a tent for transit cases at the Intensive Care Unit (ICU) with 10 beds.

The PKRC MAEPS 2.0 will also receive Covid-19 patients in categories one and two who have recovered from categories three, four and five while being treated at hospitals, as well as patients from Johor, Melaka, Negeri Sembilan and the Klang Valley. — Bernama

Dark road makes driving dangerous

Sg Buloh residents say street light problem unresolved despite complaints over two years

By AIDA AHMAD
 aidaahmad@thestar.com.my

THOSE living in and around Kampung Desa Aman, Sungai Buloh, have had to put up with pitch-dark roads for the past two years because of lack of proper street lights.

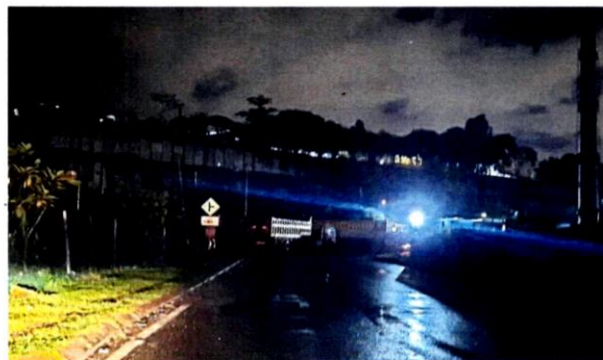

Sri Aman Heights residents said the complaints they had lodged with the authorities since 2018 seemed to have fallen on deaf ears.

StarMetro visited the area after 8pm and discovered that the particular stretch from Jalan Kuala Selangor to the railway bridge tunnel and up to the access road in Jalan Utama was dangerously dark. The situation was made worse by heavy rain.

Lorries ply Jalan Utama, which is a double-lane road near an industrial area. The street leads up to Sri Aman Heights.

Tan Hak Sieu, 67, said the authorities constantly passed the buck to one another since the first email was sent by Sri Aman Heights Residents Association (Sahra).

"We first sent a complaint to Selayang Municipal Council (MPS)

Residents of Kampung Desa Aman and Sri Aman Heights in Sungai Buloh, have had to drive on a dark main road for the past two years.

in 2018, because we thought that since the affected area was after the railway tunnel, it would be under MPS' jurisdiction.

"But the council took a while to get back to us, and when they did, they said it was under Petaling Jaya City Council's (MBPJ) jurisdiction.

"Then in 2019, MBPJ replied to us saying that they had no budget to repair the street lights.

"MBPJ told us to lodge a complaint with the Public Works Department (JKR)," he told StarMetro.

In 2019, Tan's complaint was sent to the Selangor JKR office.

"An officer replied saying the location fell under the Petaling district JKR office or the federal maintenance division and funds were needed to repair the lights.

"The officer also said the Selangor JKR electric division would apply for additional funds to repair the street lights. There was no follow-up after that.

"We even enquired with a contractor working on the MRT 2 project at the location, and they informed us that it was 'out of their work area' and we should go back to JKR.

"Until today, nothing has been done," said Tan.

The Sahra member said the road was most dangerous at night during rain when visibility was extremely poor.

"This is also a flood-prone area. Public safety is neglected. Someone has to be responsible for making sure the public is safe," he said.

Bukit Lanjan assemblyman Elizabeth Wong said she would look into the problem and find out which agency's jurisdiction it fell under.

"It is a service road, so it should fall under MPS.

"If that is the case, MPS has to apply to Tenaga Nasional Bhd to repair the lights.

"However, it often involves multi-agencies but it can be done.

"If we look at the map of the area, the jurisdiction of MPS, MBPJ and Shah Alam City Council intersects," she added.

New hawker centre welcomes relocated food operators

TWELVE hawkers have moved in as the first group of food operators at the newly opened Puchong Permai Hawker Centre in Puchong.

They comprise hawkers from the Puchong Permai roundabout, B40 individuals who are residents of apartments adopted by Subang Jaya City Council (MBSJ), as well as Puchong residents.

The centre was built by MBSJ to relocate and house hawkers in the Puchong Permai vicinity in a systematic and centralised manner.

Selangor public health, unity, women empowerment and family committee chairman Dr Siti Mariah Mahmud presented the 12 hawkers with kiosks sponsored by MBSJ. One of them also received entrepreneur assistance worth RM4,800.

Present to witness the handover was Subang Jaya mayor Noraini Roslan.

"Construction of the Puchong Permai Hawker Centre started on July 1, 2020 and cost RM280,230," said MBSJ Corporate and Strategic Management Department deputy director Azfarizal Abdul Rashid in a statement.

The hawker centre with a proper roof has 64 trading lots, each measuring 3m x 3m in size.

"MBSJ has also provided kiosks measuring 1.8m x 0.9m each as a facility for the hawkers.

"There is also ample parking space and a playground for children," said Azfarizal.

He also highlighted that the Puchong Permai Hawker Centre was strategically located along Persiaran Puchong Permai, a busy main road.

"The hawker centre is also located next to a popular weekly farmers market.

"The former Uptown Puchong site nearby will be developed as a food court and a football field this year.

"We hope the hawkers who are relocated here will benefit from the facilities offered.

The Puchong Permai Hawker Centre sited between the flats and playground is strategically located along the main road of Persiaran Puchong Permai.

"At the same time, we hope that there will be less complaints and traffic congestion at the Puchong Permai roundabout due to illegal hawker stalls there," he said.

He reminded hawkers to comply with the rules or face action. A protest was held last month when MBSJ enforcement officers demolished five illegal hawker stalls near the Puchong Permai roundabout.

There were 36 illegal stalls located along Jalan Taqwa in the township.

Of the total, 27 sold food and beverages, while others sold fruits, flowers and general goods.

MBSJ said the location was not suitable as a hawker site and that the hawkers breached their temporary permit conditions.

The hawker stalls were also located on road reserves and the stalls had permanent structures.

According to MBSJ, the hawkers continued to operate despite two notices issued by MBSJ for them to demolish the illegal structures themselves.

MBSJ said it had plans for an infrastructure upgrade at the affected road and roundabout and two briefings were held to update hawkers on the relocation exercise to the Puchong Permai Hawker Centre.

'Perak DAP has lost direction'

Buntong MP: More will be sacked even though they did their jobs IPOH: Perak DAP has lost its direction, says former state DAP leader A. Sivasubramaniam, who has added his voice to the chorus of growing criticism against the party leadership.

The Buntong assemblyman said more assemblymen would be sacked from the party even though they did their job serving the people.

"Those who did not support the 'abang-adik' (brothers) will be sacked.

"Why else would the party terminate Leong Cheok Keng's membership?"

"I was not surprised when they did that to Leong, though he has served as a two-term assemblyman," he told reporters after handing over donations from Yayasan Perak to 38 students at the Buntong service centre here yesterday.

“ I was not surprised when they did that to Leong, though he has served as a two-term assemblyman. **”

A. Sivasubramaniam

On Monday, Leong, who is Malim Nawar assemblyman, had his DAP membership terminated by the party after several reports claimed that Leong applied to join MCA.

It is believed that the term 'abang-adik' is referring to cousins, Nga Kor Ming and Datuk Ngeh Koo

Ham. Nga is Perak DAP chairman.

Sivasubramaniam, who since June last year joined Gerakan said that Nga has broken the mandate given by the people while serving in the government for 22 months.

"Besides calling those who left traitors, what else did Nga do? He promised much to the people but it's all lip-service.

"He has done nothing else.

"They will only keep those who support them, not the ones who can do the work," he said.

On March 9 last year, Sivasubramaniam, Paul Yong Choo Kiong (DAP-Tronoh) and Hasnul Zulkarnain Abdul Munaim (Amanah-Titi Serong) declared themselves as independents.

Yong remains an independent while Hasnul is now serving with Parti Pribumi Bersatu Malaysia (Bersatu).

In December, DAP veteran leader and Selangor state executive councillor Datuk Teng Chang Khim said many of the party's plans emphasised reforms but were impractical and not result-oriented.

He also said he was tired of playing the role of an "opposition" member in the party, and that "when no one opposes a proposal in the party, and you're the only one who does every time, it becomes tiring."

In an exclusive interview with Sin Chew Daily, the Bandar Baru Klang assemblyman, who has served on the party's central executive committee for 24 years, said true reform within the party was only possible if they were able to deal with Lim Kit Siang and his son Guan Eng, who are the party adviser and secretary-general respectively.

"Transforming expo park into a quarantine facility in 3 days no small feat"

KUALA LUMPUR

TAN Sri Muhyiddin Yassin visited the Malaysia Agro Exposition Park Serdang (MAEPS) 2.0 Integrated Hospital, near here, yesterday evening.

The prime minister, who arrived at 5.20pm, was accompanied by Health Minister Datuk Seri Dr Adham Baba. He was given a closed-door briefing by Selangor Health director-cum-Central Region Covid-19 Unified Command Centre commander Datuk Dr Sha'ari Ngadiman.

Present were Selangor Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Amirudin Shari and National Disaster Management Agency director-general Datuk Dr Aminuddin Hassim.

After the briefing, Muhyiddin spent time visiting and meeting patients at the Covid-19 Quarantine and Low-Risk Treatment Centre (PKRC) before touring the hospital.

On his Facebook post, Muhyiddin said he was impressed by the efforts and commitment of all frontliners from the various agencies to ensure the PKRC could facilitate those seeking treatment and being quarantined there.

"What has been done by MAEPS to transform the expo park into a PKRC in three days, starting with just 3,100 beds, is not a small feat. It's extraordinary.

"Seven halls have been coverted and they are equipped to accommodate a maximum of 10,000 beds with 9,200 of them filled to date.

"This facility is also being upgraded in phases. Once this is done, the facility can treat 30 high-risk Covid-19 patients, and 10 patients on ventilators, who need oxygen support."

Muhyiddin also said he had the chance to meet several of the frontliners at the PKRC.

"I'm proud of them as they are very responsible, committed and patient in executing their duties to look after the welfare of the patients and to ensure they have the best treatment."

He said he prayed that Covid-19 patients would stay strong while undergoing this trying time and for their speedy recovery.

"To all the frontliners, my prayers are with you. May you have the patience and strength in this fight against Covid-19."

The MAEPS 2.0 Integrated Hospital will start operating on Jan 24 to treat Covid-19 patients, who are in categories three, four and five. They will be stabilised at the facility before being sent for intensive treatment at hospitals.

The move is aimed at treating Covid-19 patients from the PKRC MAEPS 2.0 in categories one and two who suddenly fall into categories three, four and five.

The hospital, located in Hall B, will provide the same facilities as other hospitals and is equipped with 30 beds for patients in categories three and four. Outside the hall, a tent has been erected to handle transit cases at the Intensive Care Unit. It can accommodate 10 beds.

The PKRC MAEPS 2.0 will also receive Covid-19 patients in categories one and two who have recovered from categories three, four and five after being treated in hospitals. It will also receive patients from Johor, Melaka, Negeri Sembilan and the Klang Valley. Bernama

Former Port Klang Authority GM OC Phang declared bankrupt in face of RM2.6b damages payment

KUALA LUMPUR (Jan 19): Former Port Klang Authority general manager (GM) Datin Paduka OC Phang, who was ordered to pay RM2.6 billion in damages by the Shah Alam High Court to the authority, has been declared a bankrupt.

The petition notice declaring her a bankrupt was made following a Kuala Lumpur High Court order dated April 11, 2019, that allowed PKA directors to recover the amount of damages that had been assessed.

The notice seeking the court to make the announcement was made by Datuk Yap Pian Hon, who was one of the directors.

This comes after the Shah Alam High Court had in 2018 found her liable for 11 of the 15 breaches listed by PKA in a suit filed against her following the Port Klang Free Zone (PKFZ) cost overruns, according to Malaysiakini.

Justice Datuk M Gunalan, who has since been elevated to the Court of Appeal, had agreed with PKA's claim that Phang owed her duties to PKA as its GM and given that it is a statutory body, she could not bypass the board of directors and rely solely on sanctions of the Transport Ministry, Finance Ministry and the Prime Minister to enter into agreements which were binding on PKA.

"It is erroneous for Phang to contend that the Treasury guidelines were not binding or applicable to her or that she had not known of the same. Phang cannot in principle rely solely on the protection of the Transport Ministry for her actions," he said.

The court ruled that Phang had breached her duties as PKA GM by entering into agreements without first consulting the PKA board of directors and in disregard of PKA's dire financial state, but which instead appeared to benefit the interests of a third party.

Phang had tried to bring 23 PKA directors as third party individuals into the claim as part of her defence but failed. Hence, she was ordered by the court to pay RM80,000 in costs, but was not able to come up with the amount.

It is not known where the former GM is currently, as her last known address is in Bukit Bandaraya, Bangsar.

The civil suit against Phang is the only successful court case brought against those allegedly responsible for the overwhelming costs.

Meanwhile, the Federal Court had last Wednesday dismissed the prosecution's final appeal to forfeit RM37.8 million from Bintulu member of Parliament Datuk Seri Tiong King Sing, Kuala Dimensi Sdn Bhd (KDSB) and seven others in the PKFZ case.

Besides Tiong and KDSB, the main contractor of the PKFZ project, the prosecution had also named Transshipment Megahub Bhd, Coastal Skyline Sdn Bhd, Wijaya Baru Aviation Sdn Bhd, Wijaya Baru Sdn Bhd, Wijaya Baru Construction Sdn Bhd, Law Ka Hieng and the Selangor State Development Corp (PKNS) as respondents.

Lee: Prosecution and police sloppy

Former PKA chairman Datuk Lee Hwa Beng called the case by the police and prosecution sloppy at best, after the apex court last week found that the prosecution had failed to relate how Phang's three counts of breach of trust led to the money-laundering claims.

Speaking to The Edge, Lee — one of those who found something amiss in the project and helped reveal the purported mishandling and budget overruns — said if the prosecution would have read his book "PKFZ: A nation's trust betrayed", it may have performed better.

"I respect the Federal Court's decision with regards to the prosecution's final appeal (to forfeit RM37.8 million worth of property and cash) from KDSB, Tiong and seven others.

"I noticed that the apex court judgement also alluded to the electrical infrastructure that was allegedly built but in actuality are falsely claimed as rightly pointed out, but no evidence or names of witnesses were referred to in the prosecution or police affidavit that resulted in the apex court to reject the appeal.

"Normally the Tenaga Nasional Bhd (TNB) would oversee such infrastructure projects, and [I wonder] how come such evidence was not produced from the witnesses in the police and prosecution's affidavit," he said.

"It is as if the prosecution and the police [have been] doing the case half-heartedly since then attorney-general Tan Sri Abdul Gani Patail's time," he claimed further.

Lee also took the two-year-old Paktan Harapan government to task for not working hard in seeing justice be done in this case.

So far, the PKFZ had not seen any successful prosecution, with criminal breach of trust charges against Phang withdrawn in 2016.

Three other individuals — two from KDSB: its project manager Law Jenn Dong and its chief operating officer Stephen Abok, and its appointed architect Bernard Tan Swee Seng of BTA Architect — were charged with cheating. They were acquitted by the Sessions Court in 2017.

The then government and Gani had also brought charges against two former transport ministers Tun Dr Ling Liong Sik and Tan Sri Chan Kong Choy for allegedly deceiving the then Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad's and Tun Abdullah Ahmad Badawi's cabinets respectively when they were prime ministers.

Ling was acquitted by the High Court, and the prosecution did not file an appeal, while Chan's charges were later withdrawn.

劉永山楊克勤聯合3單位 蒞仁嘉隆清理垃圾

(仁嘉隆19日讯) 万津区州议员刘永山及瓜拉冷岳第九区市议员杨克勤，日前联合瓜拉冷岳市议会、JPSPKP及垃圾承包商达鲁益山集团(KDEB)，在仁嘉隆联合进行清理非法垃圾行动，并置放告示牌及拉警戒线，提醒垃圾虫勿乱丢非法垃圾。

刘永山感谢瓜冷市议会等单位，联合参与清理非法垃圾行动，使清理非法垃圾工作顺利完成，他希望居民杜绝非法乱丢垃圾行为，一起照顾居住环境的整洁卫生。

杨克勤表示，为了给下一代打造更好的舒适生活环境，他呼吁居民不要乱丢垃圾，并充当市议员的线眼，提供乱丢非法垃圾的不良商家丢弃垃圾的照片，他会要求执法单位惩罚垃圾虫。

寓意丰衣足食 班达马兰设“大碗公”

(巴生 19 日讯) 配合迎接农历新年到来，班达马兰街口设“大碗公”新地标，寓意祝贺村民、商家丰衣足食！

尽管辛丑牛年登音逼近，不过，国内冠病疫情持续笼罩，为了给大家冲冲喜，扫走病毒晦气，班达马兰州议员梁德志日前在村内进口道路打造一座巨型鸡公碗，以期村民今年可早日摆脱疫情，同时迎来大丰收之年。

该鸡公碗高约 12 尺、宽 8 尺、重达 200 公斤，目前竖立班村牌楼前的安全岛，除了象征满满的祝福，也成为班村新地标。

梁德志受询时指出，该鸡公碗由掌管雪州地方政府、公共交通及新村发展事务的黄思汉拨款 2 万令吉，本身再拨款

鸡公碗设立后，吸引民众前往拍照打卡。

1 万 5000 令吉，合共 3 万 5000 令吉兴建。

“鸡公碗将长期竖立班村，象征村民生活如该碗一样，永远盛满米饭，丰衣足食、生活无忧。”

邓赐安表示因身在万挠，接手该园地后14年光景，都只专心种植发迹万挠的J33蜜糖菠萝蜜品种，就像榴槤是适合彭亨旁勿一带种植，那是「对的事物要放在对的位置」的道理。

邓赐安解释：菠萝蜜属空气传播授粉植物；雄性果实随风把花粉带给雌性果实后，授粉雌果会持续长大，需用袋子套起来，免遭果蝇等动物破坏。

50岁转行种菠萝蜜 邓赐安拓海外市场

报导 黄国强

邓赐安年过半百转行菠萝蜜种植，从一无所知到进军本地批发和海外出口，甚至新冠疫情当下，毫不畏惧接任隆雪果农公会主席职，矢言率一众果农会员提升品质，推广「多吃本地水果活动」。

谁能料想到他原先擅长领域并非种植业，而是干了近40年的印刷业，45岁后开始筹划退休生活，恰巧一名发展商地主种植了菠萝蜜苗子介绍给他，几番思量如经费和地点与万挠住所相距不远等，于是知命之年50岁时接手那片50亩种植地。

一晃眼如今他种植已14年，在7年前扩大种植地至120亩，其种植品种为J33蜜糖菠萝蜜，果如其名，甜如蜜但不腻、果核小果肉厚、口感扎实又多汁。「一开始也是啥都不懂边做边学，也加入了当年创办的马来西亚果农总会(MFFA)，感激其他菠萝蜜农无私传授种植秘诀，抱著try-or-dead(试或死)心态不断尝试种植，从中改进不

蜜糖菠萝蜜种植虽成绩不俗，惟邓赐安不原地止步，而是稳健地每7年一个「大进展」，去年接手了雪州农业发展机构(PKPS)拨给马来西亚果农总会的40亩杨桃耕地，开始涉足杨桃种植。

「我们公会在1200亩的水果谷，争取到80亩地段租赁给会员，其中一半空地一半杨桃种植，疫情冲击使一些感兴趣会员，因经济困境而放弃，我就接手那40亩杨桃地。」

他解释，涉足杨桃种植不仅是出于接手，更多是看见杨桃市场潜能，特别在降血压和降胆固醇方面很显著，且过去20年来均不断出口欧洲，佳节期间需求量极高。

足，自14年前50亩地，7年前再扩大70亩。

他表示，过去14年光景，一心坚持只种植蜜糖菠萝蜜品种，无巧不成书，正是此品种干包耐放，属农业部旗下联邦农业销售局(FAMA)相中推广适合出口的品种。

几乎供不应求

「起初我是批发给本地各大连锁超市，如永旺(AEON)、巨人(Giant)等。7、8年前搭上空运蔬果到英国、荷兰等海外集装运输的机会，其实一开始并不顺利，出口海外的菠萝蜜面对印度、越南和泰国竞争，尤其是5、6月印

菠萝蜜树的果实分雌雄，公花外圈裹有花粉，随风会飘落在母花外圈果实上，授粉后会在内部形成果肉，完成授粉任务的公花会开始发黑发霉最终掉落「功成身退」，母花则会继续变大。

度菠萝蜜大收成，产量更难以匹敌。」
「现在就不一样了，海外顾客已接纳认可了雪州万挠特有J33品种品质，现在指定此品种，所以我们如今订购量几乎呈现不够供货的程度。」

不原地止步 涉足杨桃种植

个人种植发展计划周详，就连去年8月份从隆雪果农公会创办人兼名誉主席董旺添手中，接过主席职迄今，面临严峻新冠疫情考验，也一丝不苟，继续推广属下「多吃本地水果活动」计划。

该计划启动多年，2018年初曾应时任副馆长张盛闻邀请，还有2019年11月份应雪州议长兼选耕庄州议员黄瑞林邀请，先后到国会大厦和雪州议会大厦向各个议员介绍本地水果。

「当然此计划推动政府和私人领域多采用本地水果办活动，反应绩效也

很好，确实吸引了不少机会给本地果农，其中农业银行(Agro Bank)集团50周年晚宴尽数使用本地水果，就是这计划带来最好的成果之一。」

「公会需所有人通力合作搞，而现在疫情更重要是相互照顾，去年行管令使3至6月农作物滞销到烂掉，配合「多吃本地水果活动」我们成立了「果农合作社」小组与虾皮(Shopee)和Lazada等网购平台，帮助其他果农不再仅限于线下销售，并开辟线上销路，减少滞销。」

无论当年涉足菠萝蜜种植，或现在接任隆雪果农公会主席职，邓赐安都是拟好计划，设立目标，再稳扎稳打地推进。

邓赐安将推广本地水果视为己任，并引述数据道，2018年进口水果量达20亿令吉，而2019年单苹果和橙进口也有7亿令吉，可见本地人对外来水果依赖性仍高。

他认为，其实使用本地水果拜祭或融入料理同样有心意有创意，而该如何推动、如何提高本地人接受度，这是门学问所在。「其实日韩，甚至临近泰国人民都很支持自己国家蔬果，进口量也相对少，就以泰国进口的橙仅占该国市场不到10%，其余绝大部分都是国内种植的青皮柑为主。」

他说，协助更多果农获得大马农业良好农业规范(myGAP)亦是公会为提升本地水果品质目标之一，因该认证是符合国际Gap的本土化食品安全认证系统，无论国人吃得安心，或出口海外也更容易。「此认证是鼓励农民耕种时不会有超标的农药使用，类似有效的品质控管标准作业程序(SOP)。」
