‘Tiada hospital, klinik swasta lewat maklum kes’

Kuala Lumpur: Hospital atau klinik swasta yang menjalankan ujian saringan COVID-19 tidak melambatkan pelaporan kes, sekali gus melanggar peraturan menetapkan kes penyakit berjangkit dilaporkan serta-merta.

Presiden Persatuan Hospital Swasta Malaysia (APHM), Datuk Dr Kuljit Singh, berkata pihaknya tiada menerima laporan atau mengenal pasti pengamal swasta yang melengahkan proses pelaporan ditetapkan.

“Kami perlu meneliti dan mengesahkan jika ada hospital atau klinik swasta melambatkan pelaporan kerana kebiasaannya apabila keputusan keluar, ia terus dihantar serta-merta.

“Bagaimanapun, kadang-kadang kita mendapat laporan agak lambat dari makmal.

“Pihak makmal juga terlalu sibuk memproses ujian saringan COVID-19 yang terus meningkat,” katanya ketika dihubungi BH, semalam.

Kelmarin, Ketua Pengarah Kesihatan, Tan Sri Dr Noor Hisham Abdullah, memaklumkan peningkatan kes harian COVID-19 secara mendadak sejak beberapa hari lalu antaranya berpunca daripada kelewatan pelaporan menggunakan Sistem Makmal Kesihatan Awam (SIMKA) oleh fasiliti swasta.

Dr Kuljit berkata, hospital dan klinik swasta sudah melakukan yang terbaik mengikut kemampuan dan kapasiti semasa bagi mengurangkan beban hospital kerajaan.

Katanya, kenyataan Dr Noor Hisham menyebut kelewatan pelaporan itu berlaku di pihak Kementerian.

“Apabila terlalu banyak data dihantar dari seluruh negara, prosesnya akan sedikit lambat,” katanya.

Beliau turut mengulas kenyataan Menteri Besar Selangor, Datuk Seri Amirudin Shari, yang akan mengenakan tindakan kompaun melalui Jabatan Kesihatan Negeri Selangor (JKNS) kepada klinik atau hospital swasta yang tidak melaporkan kes positif secara terus pada hari yang sama melalui SIMKA.

“Ugutan sedemikian tidak wajar, sebaiknya berbincang dan beri amaran jika benar ada pengamal swasta melakukan tindakan sedemikian,” katanya.

Dr Kuljit memaklumkan, hospital swasta sudah mula menerima dan merawat pesakit COVID-19 mengikut kemampuan pusat perubatan masing-masing.

Katanya, inisiatif itu dimulakan sejak lebih sebulan lalu tetapi bezanya dahulu pesakit COVID-19 boleh dihantar ke hospital kerajaan.

“Sekarang ini disebabkan tiada katil, kita teruskan rawatan menyeluruh di hospital swasta.

“Hospital swasta yang ada fasiliti seperti katil di unit rawatan rapi (ICU) boleh menerima pesakit COVID-19 termasuk yang kritikal atau berada di tahap lima,” katanya.

Beliau menambah, jumlah pesakit yang dikendalikan hospital swasta agak kecil memandangkan mereka tidak mempunyai tenaga pakar dan kemudahan sebagaimana dimiliki hospital kerajaan.

Mengikut data Kementerian Kesihatan (KKM), setakat ini 96 hospital swasta bersetuju menyediakan rawatan COVID-19 dengan kemudahan 1,252 katil, 65 katil ICU dan 54 mesin ventilator.

SHAH ALAM: Klinik swasta yang mengendalikan ujian saringan tidak menyembunyikan keputusan pesakit yang menunjukkan positif Covid-19.

Ketua Pegawai Operasi Kumpulan Megaklinik Zahran, Mohd. Nafidz Abdul Razak berkata, pihaknya sentiasa mengemas kini keputusan positif Covid-19 menerusi Unit Notifikasi Khas Covid-19 yang ditubuhkan sejak tahun lalu.

Katanya, unit khas itu ditubuhkan untuk mengendalikan pesakit positif dengan memaklumkan keputusan semasa kepada Pejabat kesihatan Daerah (PKD) dan di dalam Sistem Informasi Makmal Kesihatan Awam (SIMKA).

"Seramai 10 individu ditugaskan dalam unit khas tersebut kerana setiap keputusan diperoleh dua kali iaitu pagi dan petang. Apabila keputusan diperoleh dan menunjukkan positif, kita terus memaklumkan kepada Kementerian Kesihatan.

"Setakat ini, kira-kira 500 individu melakukan ujian saringan setiap hari dengan melalui dua kaedah sama ada menggunakan Polymerase Chain Reaction (PCR) dan kit ujian Rapid Antigen (RTK-Ag). Keputusan setiap hari ujian saringan menunjukkan kira-kira sepuluh peratus atau 20 hingga 50 individu yang melakukan ujian saringan didapati positif Covid-19m," katanya ketika dihubungi Utusan Ma- laysia di sini, semalam.

Semalam, Menteri Besar, Datuk Seri Amirudin Shari memaklumkan tindakan klinik dan hospital swasta yang tidak melaporkan secara terus kes Covid-19 adalah salah satu faktor penyumbang peningkatan virus itu direkodkan di Selangor.

Malah, peningkatan kes Covid-19 di negeri ini disebabkan kes kumulatif daripada saringan pekerja kilang dan di penjara yang dapat dikesan kes yang berlaku 10 hari yang lalu.

Mohd. Nafidz menegaskan, tiada isu menyorokkan keputusan semasa Covid-19 dan terus memberi kerjasama kepada kerajaan dalam usaha memutuskan rantaian virus.

Dalam pada itu, beliau memaklumkan, pihaknya tidak mempunyai kuasa mutlak untuk mengambil tindakan lanjut terhadap pesakit kecuali menasihatkan mereka supaya kekal berada di rumah agar dapat memutuskan rantaian Covid-19.

"Kita mencadangkan supaya kerajaan memperbaiki sistem dengan memberi kuasa kepada klinik dan hospital swasta untuk mengendalikan kes pesakit Covid-19 agar dapat bertindak pantas.

"Mungkin mereka boleh memberikan kuasa kepada klinik dan hospital swasta untuk memberikan gelang pink kepada pesakit. Apabila keputusan diperoleh positif, kita boleh terus ke rumah pesakit untuk memakaikan gelang pink," ujarnya yang mempunyai 11 cawangan.

Sambut Tahun Baru Cina dalam talian

Shah Alam: Selangor akan menganjurkan sambutan Tahun Baru Cina peringkat negeri secara dalam talian iaitu menerusi platform media sosial buat julung kalinya pada 12 Februari ini.

Exco Pelaburan, Perindustrian dan Perdagangan dan Industri Kecil dan Sederhana negeri, Datuk Teng Chang Khin berkata, sambutan yang bertemakan Tahun Baru, Harapan Baru itu akan disiarkan di laman Facebook Menteri Besar Selangor dan media dalam talian pada hari pertama Tahun Baru Cina bermula 9 malam.

"Sambutan perayaan ini menerusi platform media sosial adalah susulan ke-adaan semasa pandemik Covid-19 yang tidak membenarkan penganjuran acara besar dan perhimpunan orang ramai.

"Ia juga dapat memberikan impak positif kepada masyarakat berbilang kaum, terutamanya di Selangor, apabila masyarakat Melayu, India dan lain-lain juga dapat menonton persembahan yang disediakan sepanjang program itu berlangsung," katanya.

Menurut beliau, kaedah penerbitan program istimewa secara maya itu dilihat sebagai alternatif terbaik yang berseesuaian dengan norma baharu untuk masyarakat Cina menikmati suasana perayaan di kediaman masing-masing.

Katanya, sebanyak 12 persembahan nyanyian, tarian dan kebudayaan akan disiarkan untuk program yang menelan kos penganjuran RM414,000 antaranya melibatkan kumpulan tarian kebudayaan Cina bertaraf antarabangsa.

Mengulas tema Tahun Baru, Harapan Baru, Teng berkata pemilihannya dibuat bagi memberi semangat kepada masyarakat yang telah hampir setahun dilanda pandemik Covid-19.

"Sejak Covid-19 melanda, ramai kehilangan kerja, perniagaan dan kehidupan terjejas, tidak boleh ke sekolah, serta ditangguh peperiksaan. Disebabkan itu, Tahun Baru Cina ini adalah perayaan penting bagi masyarakat Tiang Hua untuk kita perbaharui azam dan mahu bebas daripada belunggu penyakit," katanya.

Teng turut menasihati masyarakat Cina supaya kekal mematuhi prosedur operasi standard (SOP) semasa menyambut perayaan Tahun Baru Cina minggu depan.

'AGAMA MELAYU'

Siasatan peringkat akhir

Tumpat

Siasatan berhubung agama baharu dikenali sebagai 'Agama Melayu' yang menolak ajaran Islam, kini berada di peringkat akhir dan dijangka selesai dalam masa terdekat.

Timbalan Menteri di Jabatan Perdana Menteri (Hal Ehwal Agama), Datuk Ahmad Marzuk Shaary (gambar) berkata, sebaik siasatan selesai, pihaknya akan membuat pengumuman.

Katanya, kes berkenaan diserahkan kepada Jabatan Agama Islam Negeri Selangor (Jais) untuk menyiasat memandangkan kes berkenaan di Selangor.

"Sekiranya siasatan mendapati wujud penyelewengan ajaran sesat, Jais akan mengambil tindakan lanjut termasuk proses pendakwaan di mahkamah.

"Bagaimanapun, saya menasihatkan orang ramai supaya tidak cepat untuk menghukum seseorang individu berdasarkan video yang tular.

"Sebaliknya perkara itu perlu diserahkan kepada pihak berkuasa agama untuk menyiasat. Ini kerana soal penyelewengan akidah hanya boleh dinilai pihak tertentu, bukan semua orang boleh tentukan," katanya pada sidang media selepas menyerahkan bantuan Tabung Musaadah Covid-19 Jakim-Yayasan Waqaf Malaysia (YWM) di sini, semalam.

Media sebelum ini melaporkan pihak berkuasa agama menyiasat dan meneliti tindakan sewajarnya berhubung isu agama baharu dikenali sebagai 'Agama Melayu' yang menolak ajaran Islam.

Yang Dipertua Yayasan Dakwah Islamiah Malaysia (Yadim), Nasrudin Hassan berkata, sebagai agensi dakwah, pihaknya sentiasa bersedia untuk memberi kefahaman, pemurnian akidah dan fikrah.

Mengulas lanjut, Ahmad Marzuk berkata, pihaknya menerima laporan berkaitan perkara berkenaan minggu lalu selepas tular sebuah video sebelum Jais membuat siasatan.

Kumpulan penggadam itu turut menggadam portal perak.my, bagaimanapun tidak dapat dipastikan sama ada ia laman sesawang yang ada kaitan dengan kerajaan negeri Perak. Semakan Harian Metro mendapati kumpulan tersebut meninggalkan pesanan di laman sesawang yang digodam dan meminta pentadbir laman sesawang menjaga keselamatan portal mereka. "Kepada pentadbir laman web (sesawang), kami menemu-lah laman web anda terdedah dengan ancaman penggadaman, sila pastikan laman web anda selamat. "Kami memohon maaf kerana menggadam laman web anda, jangan cuba mencari kami kerana kami hanya ingin memastikan laman web anda tidak la-gi terdedah," kata kumpulan penggadam itu dalam portal yang digodam mereka. Kumpulan itu turut meninggalkan e-mel untuk menghubungi mereka dalam laman sesawang yang digodam. Bagaimanapun semua laman sesawang yang digodam berkenaan pulih seperti sedia kala, semalam. Minggu lalu, Cyberpunk Team melalui laman Facebook Anonymous Malaysia kembali mun-cul menghantui laman sesawang dan aset dalam talian negara ini selepas lima tahun berdiam diri. Kemunculan kembali kumpulan itu dibuktikan menerusi satu video berdurasi 2.29 minit yang dikongsikan di laman sosial Facebooknya. Menerusi mesej video itu, kumpulan berkenaan berjanji untuk mengadakan serangan siber terhadap laman web kerajaan dan aset atas talian dikenali sebagai #OpsWaketP21. Majlis Keselamatan Negara (MKN) melalui Agensi Keselamatan Siber Negara (Nacsas) memandang serius ancaman pihak tertentu mahu menggadam laman sesawang kerajaan menerusi penularan satu video yang dikeluarkan Anonymous Malaysia di platform media sosial baru-baru ini. MKN dalam satu kenyataan dilaporkan berkata, sehubungan itu, Nacsas sudah mengeluarkan satu notis amaran kepada semua agensi kerajaan untuk mengambil langkah perlu bagi mencegah dan meminimumkan impak ancaman serangan itu.

Penggodam Anonymous Malaysia serang portal kerajaan dan agensinya

Laman web kastam, CIDB digodam

Oleh RIDZAUDDIN ROSLAN

PETALING JAYA – Penggodam laman sesawang bergelair Anonymous Malaysia mula membuat serangan siber ke atas portal-portal milik kerajaan dan agensinya dengan menjadikan Jabatan Kastam Diraja Malaysia (JKDM) dan Majlis Perbandaran Selayang (MPS) antara mangsa pertama.

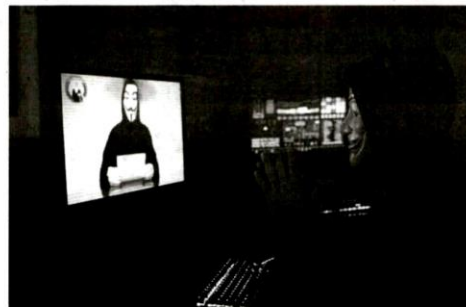

Selain dua portal itu, mereka turut menggodam laman web Kerajaan Negeri Sabah, Perak, my dan Lembaga Pembangunan Industri Pembinaan Malaysia (CIDB) dengan meninggalkan logo cyberpunk di situ.

Serangan tersebut dimaklumkan mereka pada awal pagi semalam di laman Facebook Anonymous Malaysia dengan kata-kata cyberpunk team has started the party (kumpulan cyberpunk telah memulakan parti).

Kumpulan itu mengotakan janji mereka untuk melakukan serangan siber selepas memberi ugutan kedua kepada kerajaan pada minggu lalu.

Minggu lalu, Anonymous Malaysia kembali muncul menghantui laman web dan aset dalam talian selepas lima tahun berdiri.

Sementara itu, Ketua Aktivis Persatuan Pengguna Siber Malaysia, Dr. Mohd. Fazli Azran berkata, Serangan Alih Muka Web (Defacement) boleh menjadi lebih besar sekiranya tiada tindakan segera daripada kerajaan.

"Ketika ini, beberapa agensi seperti JKDM dan CIDB telah digodam dan tidak mustahil agensi lebih besar akan berdepan nasib sama jika tiada tindakan tegas kerajaan.

Keputusan akan didedah selepas siasatan JAIS lengkap

Siasatan 'Agama Melayu' hampir selesai

Oleh YATIMIN ABDULLAH

TUMPAT - Siasatan menyeluruh berhubung ajaran sesat 'Agama Melayu' yang didedahkan Yayasan Dakwah Islamiah Malaysia (Yadim) dijangka hampir selesai.

Timbalan Menteri Di Jabatan Perdana Menteri (Hal Ehwal Agama), Datuk Ahmad Marzuk Shaary berkata, siasatan mengenai ajaran itu sedang dijalankan oleh Jabatan Agama Islam Selangor (JAIS) dan akan didedahkan sekiranya selesai tidak lama lagi.

Menurut beliau, buat masa ini, pihak kementerian menerusi Jabatan Kemajuan Islam Malaysia (Jakim) memberi kerjasama penuh dan percaya akan kredibiliti JAIS dalam melakukan siasatan kes tersebut.

"Jika ada kes (wujudnya aspek penyelewengan dalam ajaran 'Agama Melayu'), kita akan kemukakan kepada pihak pendakwaan untuk tindakan selanjutnya.

"Jakim menerima laporan berhubung kes ini pada minggu lalu selepas satu video upacara ritual berkaitan ajaran itu tular di media sosial," katanya.

KERATAN Kosmo! 30 Januari 2021.

Beliau berkata demikian ketika ditemui selepas menyampaikan sumbangan Jabatan Wakaf Haji dan Umrah (Jauhar) kepada Hospital Tumpat di sini semalam.

Kosmo! pada Sabtu lalu melaporkan orang ramai dinasihatkan agar tidak terpengaruh dengan ajaran baharu dikenali sebagai 'Agama Melayu' yang didakwa sebagai sesat lagi menyesatkan.

Yang Dipertua Yadim, Nasrudin Hassan berkata, pihak berkuasa agama sedang menyasat perkara itu selain memberi kefahaman aqidah dan fikrah.

Mengulas lanjut, Ahmad Marzuk memberitahu, pihaknya pernah menerima laporan berhubung berkaitan satu ajaran sesat di Pahang baru-baru ini.

Jelas beliau, Jakim akan manjangkan perkara itu kepada Jawatankuasa Muzakarah Kebangsaan Hal Ehwal Islam pada

16 Februari ini untuk diteliti kandungan ajaran tersebut sekiranya bertentangan dengan Islam.

"Saya ingin menasihatkan orang ramai agar tidak cepat menghukum sesuatu perkara berkaitan dengan ajaran sesat.

"Kita serah kepada yang pakar untuk membuat keputusan," kata beliau.

Kertas siasatan kes ajaran Islam Melayu hampir lengkap, kata Ahmad Marzuk

TUMPAT - Kertas siasatan terhadap dakwaan ajaran Islam Melayu yang dikendalikan oleh Jabatan Agama Islam Selangor (JAIS) hampir lengkap dan dalam proses seterusnya sebelum pendakwaan.

Timbalan Menteri di Jabatan Perdana Menteri (Hal Ehwal Agama), Datuk Ahmad Marzuk Shaary berkata, kes itu diserahkan kepada JAIS kerana ia di bawah bidang kuasa agama negeri.

Menurutnya, siasatan masih lagi berjalan dan Jabatan Kemajuan Agama Islam Malaysia (Jakim) akan memberikan kerjasama untuk memperkemas lagi siasatan.

"Setakat ini kita sangat berpuas hati dan dapat rasakan kredibiliti yang dipamerkan JAIS dalam melaksanakan tugas-tugas penyiasatan dakwaan ajaran Islam Melayu ini.

"Bila sampai kepada peringkat akhir, insya-ALLAH sekiranya ada kes penyelewengan (agama), pihak berkuasa akan melakukan langkah seterusnya iaitu proses pendakwaan," katanya kepada pemberita di sini pada Isnin.

Ahmad Marzuk berkata, pihaknya menerima laporan sebaik sahaja tular video memper-lihatkan satu ritual yang agak asing kepada orang Islam baru-baru ini.

Katanya, kes tersebut akan diselesaikan dalam masa terdekat dan satu pengumuman akan dibuat dalam masa terdekat.

"Satu lagi ajaran di Pahang iaitu Doktor Awang Masri juga akan dipanjangkan kepada Muzakarah Kebangsaan Hal Ehwal Islam pada 16 Februari nanti untuk diteliti kandungan ajaran adakah benar atau sebaliknya," katanya.

Terdahulu, tular satu rakaman video di media sosial menunjukkan individu melakukan upacara paluan gong dipercayai ritual ajaran agama Melayu di sebuah pulau yang dipercayai Pulau Besar.

Video tersebut turut mengaitkan seorang individu dikenali sebagai Ibu Yati yang dikatakan membawa ajaran berkenaan.

Sinar Harian pada Jumaat melaporkan Yang Dipertua Yayasan Dakwah Islamiah Malaysia (Yadim), Nasrudin Hassan menasihatkan orang ramai agar tidak terpengaruh dengan ajaran Islam Melayu dibawakan individu terbabit.

Beliau berkata, kelahiran agama baharu yang dikenali sebagai Agama Melayu itu menolak ajaran Islam yang dianggap sebagai Islam Arab serta mengakui membawa ajaran Islam Melayu.

Sementara itu, Ahmad Marzuk turut menasihatkan orang ramai supaya jangan cepat percaya sesuatu hanya berdasarkan video yang tular, sebaliknya menyerahkan kepada pihak berkuasa yang lebih pakar untuk menjalankan siasatan.

Perlu proaktif pulihara bangunan bersejarah

ANALISIS

ZURAIMIE ZAINAL

Setiap negara mempunyai bangunan bersejarah yang memiliki keunikan tersendiri.

Bangunan atau monumen bersejarah selain pembacaan kisah tokoh sejarah baik politik, ekonomi dan sosial disifatkan antara elemen penting dalam pembentukan semangat patriotisme dalam kalangan rakyat terutama generasi muda.

Monumen bersejarah ini penting untuk dikekalkan sebagai rujukan kerana ia adalah bukti kukuh kepada sesuatu peristiwa atau era yang pernah berlaku dahulu.

Secara psikologinya monumen ini dapat menjadi pengisian dalam pembentukan jati diri generasi muda tidak hanya mengenai pengorbanan generasi terdahulu dalam memperjuangkan kemerdekaan negara sebelum ini tetapi juga pembinaan ketamadunan bangsa Malaysia.

Menurut Kamus Dewan Bahasa Edisi Keempat - Monumen merujuk kepada bangunan yang dibina untuk memperingati seseorang atau peristiwa penting.

Malaysia memiliki banyak monumen mengikut era yang mempunyai nilai tidak hanya mempunyai nilai komersial memacu industri perlancongan tetapi juga menyuntik semangat patriotisme.

Dari utara, Stesen Keretapi Padang Besar (Perlis); Masjid Zahir, Lembah Bujang (Kedah); Kota Cornwallis, Penang Free School, Rumah P. Ramlee, Muzium Perang (Pulau Pinang); Istana Iskandariah, Istana Kellie's, Menara Jam Condong Teluk Intan (Perak).

Di tengah pula, Bukit Malawati, Jambatan Kota, Masjid Sultan Salahudin Abdul Aziz Shah, Istana Alam Shah manakala ibu kota Kuala Lumpur pula dengan bangunan Abdul Samad, Stadium Merdeka, Stesen Keretapi Kuala Lumpur, Carcosa Seri Negara, Tugu Negara.

Rantaian selatan pula tidak kurang hebat dengan Istana Lama Seri Menanti, Teratak Za'aba, Muzium Tentera Darat (Negeri Sembilan); Kota A Famosa, bangunan Stadthuis, Gereja St Paul (Melaka); Masjid Sultan Abu Bakar, bangunan Sultan Ibrahim, Muzium Sultan Abu Bakar dan Balai Polis Bukit Kepong (Johor).

Jajaran pantai timur pula ada Jambatan Gantung Sungai Lembing (Pahang); Pintu Kota Istana Balai Besar (Kelantan); Masjid Abidin (Masjid Putih), Batu Bersurat Padang Tara (Terengganu).

Untuk generasi gajet terus mengikut kisah sejarah monumen tidak menjadi sebarang masalah dengan kecanggihan teknologi telekomunikasi pada masa kini melalui platform WhatsApp, Telegram, Tik Tok dan sebagainya.

Namun, cabaran sebenar adalah untuk mengekalkan monumen ini untuk terus menjadi tatapan generasi masa depan.

Antaranya cabaran kewangan yang menyaksikan beberapa kawasan bersejarah berada dalam wilayah segitiga ekonomi yang mempunyai pasaran hartanah tinggi.

Selain itu, kurangnya tenaga pakar dalam kalangan rakyat tempat-an bidang pemuliharaan baik bangunan bersejarah ini juga secara tidak langsung menjadikan sesuatu kerja pembaikan mengambil tempoh masa yang panjang.

Faktor kurangnya kesedaran dalam kalangan segelintir anggota masyarakat khususnya terhadap nilai sentimental sesebuah monumen juga mengundang kepada berlakunya vandalisme terhadap produk sejarah lalu ini.

Pulihara

Pada Ahad, Sultan Selangor, Sultan Sharafuddin Idris Shah bertitah menerusi Facebook rasmi Selangor Royal Office supaya semua pihak bertanggungjawab memperhebatkan usaha berkaitan pemuliharaan dan pemeliharaan monumen bersejarah berkaitan negeri itu terutamanya di Kuala Lumpur.

Sultan Sharafuddin bimbang sekiranya bangunan bersejarah itu tidak dipulihara segera serta terbiar berkemungkinan monumen itu akan runtuh atau rosak sehingga tidak boleh diselamatkan lagi.

Kesimpulannya, usaha pemuliharaan dan pemeliharaan monumen bersejarah ini memerlukan sokongan padu secara konsisten tidak hanya dalam kalangan rakyat, pertumbuhan bukan kerajaan (NGO) tetapi juga komitmen sektor korporat dan kerajaan negara ini.

Paling penting cara berfikir setiap anggota masyarakat juga perlu berubah dengan tidak menganggap monumen lama sebagai barangan lama sebaliknya sebagai sesuatu yang tak lapuk dek hujan, tak lekap dek panas.

PETALING JAYA

Penduduk di Projek Perumahan Rakyat (PPR) Lembah Subang 1 di sini kesal dan kecewa dengan pihak berkuasa tempatan (PBT) serta pihak pengurusan kerana didakwa tidak mengendahkan aduan mereka mengenai persekitaran tidak selesa akibat longgokan sampah termasuk kerosakan kemudahan di bangunan itu.

Tinjauan Sinar Harian pada Isnin mendapati keadaan di PPR sangat kotor dengan timbunan sampah di antara blok-blok kediaman yang mengeluarkan bau busuk di kawasan sekitarnya.

Selain itu, tinjauan juga mendapati kemudahan lain seperti tangga, kamera litar tertutup (CCTV) dan taman permainan rosak akibat tiada penyelenggaraan baik daripada pihak pengurusan di sini.

Salah seorang penduduk di sini yang mahu dikenali sebagai Niza, 43, berkata, kehadiran orang tempatan dan warga asing yang menceroboh dan tinggal secara haram di sini menyusahkan kehidupannya.

Menurut ibu tunggal itu, dia pernah bergelap selama beberapa hari kerana bekalan elektrik di rumahnya terputus akibat wayar penyambung elektrik di rumah dicuri pinginap haram itu.

"Mereka (penceroboh) juga pernah buang sampah di depan rumah saya sehingga kawasan depan rumah saya berbau busuk kerana berendam dengan saya tanpa sebab yang munasabah.

"Sudah banyak kali saya adukan kepada PBT dan pihak Majlis Bandaraya Petaling Jaya (MBPJ), tapi mereka langsung tak peduli dengan kami di sini, katanya yang telah tinggal di kawasan itu sejak 16 tahun lalu.

Seorang peniaga air tebu yang mahu dikenali sebagai Abu, 36, pula berkata, pihaknya pernah terkesan dengan sikap penceroboh haram yang selalu mencampakkan sampah dari tingkat atas ke aras bawah.

Ujar Abu, dia dan rakan-rakan pernah bekerjasama untuk membersihkan kawasan di bloknya dengan upah sebanyak RM10 setiap rumah, namun golongan tersebut tidak mahu memberi kerjasama.

"Kita tidak tahu siapa buang sampah kerana kamera CCTV di sini pun selalu rosak.

"Jadi, saya ambil inisiatif untuk membayar tukang cuci untuk bersihkan kawasan rumah dengan upah RM10 setiap rumah. Itu pun mereka (penceroboh) tidak beri kerjasama," katanya kepada Sinar Harian pada Isnin.

Dalam pada itu, seorang penduduk yang mahu dikenali sebagai Lina, 48, berkata, dia berasa kurang selesa dan tidak selamat apabila mengetahui ramai penceroboh terutama daripada golongan warga asing yang tinggal di sini secara haram.

Dakwanya, pihak PBT tidak pernah datang untuk memeriksa kawasan PPR itu untuk memastikan penduduknya tinggal secara sah.

"Sepanjang lebih lima tahun tinggal di sini, saya tidak pernah nampak PBT buat pemeriksaan untuk banteras warga asing yang tinggal di PPR ini secara haram," katanya.

Pengurusan PPR Lembah Subang 1 bawah seliaan KPKT, bukan PBT

PETALING JAYA - Pengurusan dan penyelenggaraan Projek Perumahan Rakyat (PPR) Lembah Subang 1 adalah di bawah kawalan pihak Kementerian Perumahan dan Kerajaan Tempatan (KPKT) dan bukannya di bawah seliaan Majlis Bandaraya Petaling Jaya (MBPJ).

Ahli Dewan Undangan Negeri (ADUN) Seri Setia, Halimey Abu Bakar berkata, Menteri KPKT sebelum ini, Tan Sri Noh Omar tidak mahu mana-mana pihak berkuasa tempatan (PBT) kerajaan negeri masuk campur urusan Lembah Subang.

Namun begitu katanya, kementerian berkenaan tidak melakukan pemantauan terhadap penghuni di PPR itu.

“Kerajaan Selangor pernah mengadakan serbuan pada tahun lepas yang berjaya menurunkan jumlah penyewa haram yang tinggal di PPR berkenaan.

“Namun, sejak bertukar kerajaan, sudah tiada pemantauan daripada pihak KPKT sehingga kini,” katanya kepada Sinar Harian pada Isnin.

Mengulas lanjut, Halimey berkata, dia peka dengan aduan penduduk di ka-wasan itu yang tidak selesai dengan pencerobohan warga asing serta pengurusan sisa domestik yang tidak efisien.

Katanya, pihaknya juga berharap KPKT melantik kontraktor penyelenggaraan bangunan dan pengurusan sampah pukal pada kadar segera untuk menyelesaikan keresahan penduduk.

“Saya juga akan hantar surat kepada KPKT terutama kepada menterinya, Datuk Zuraida Kamaruddin untuk membincangkan masalah ini,” katanya.

Sementara itu, Pengerusi Kawasan Rukun Tetangga (KRT) Blok D PPR Lembah Subang 1, Hairuddin Idris berkata, pencerobohan orang tempatan di PPR Lembah Subang 1 ini bermula sejak 2006 hingga 2007 apabila penghuni asal berpindah kerana sudah mempunyai rumah sendiri.

Beliau berkata, penghuni asal tersebut tidak menyerahkan kunci rumah kepada MBPJ, sebaliknya menyewakan rumah tersebut kepada individu yang memerlukan rumah pada kadar yang tinggi.

Glad to be back in business

Battling Covid-19

Traders eager to make up for lost time, earn income during festive period

By JARDUM LIM

jar@thestar.com.my

IT WAS A great moment for night market traders, at several locations in the Klang Valley, as they reopened their business after more than two weeks of second movement control order. They expressed their gladness that the government was allowing them to reopen as Friday evening traders in Kuala Lumpur would have to adhere to tighter market-opening procedures (MOP).

There will be a limit of one visit per stall at night markets in the capital city.

This knowledge comes from four Covid-19 positive cases reported at two Kajang evening markets which led to one of the markets being closed for 10 days.

"We do not want any Covid-19 infections in evening and night markets and we want the SOP to be enforced rigorously to prevent infections among traders and visitors," a Kuala Lumpur City Hall (KLCC) spokesperson said when contacted.

"We urge all parties to adhere to the SOP at all times, as the public has the right to issue complaints to report breaching the procedures," KLCC said.

The KLCC spokesperson stated that all night markets in Kuala Lumpur were allowed to open while several night market associations in Klang and Seremban have also been granted the green light for the weekend.

On the same day, the National Security Council (NSC) issued that night markets were allowed to operate from 6pm to 10pm under the SOP guidelines but this was subsequently reversed.

A Kuala Lumpur City Hall spokesman said that he had to set up the guidelines by 6pm.

"Some night market traders in Setia Alam, Shah Alam chose to capitulate as MCO's announcement is their sales tactic."

"Come and have the Chinese New Year biscuits before we are not allowed to open again," yelled a night market trader, selling live grass carp in Seremban.

Not aligned

In addition to the confusion, different local authorities in Selangor are adopting varying approaches, including the Klang Night Market Association secretary Ken Lee said.

Traders who rely solely on night market visitors to make a living, the two-week closure has been a tough time for them.

"I'm not sure how long it will last, but it's difficult to maintain his family without revenue as income from trading at the night market has been reduced to a trickle."

"The additional restriction of one visitor to a stall also puts a limit on the maximum number of visitors at one time to capped at 200."

"But, this was not a problem for us as the Taman Midah night market is a large area and we are able to spread out our stalls."

Charles, however, said the government should not force traders to operate by restricting traders' operations to selling only certain types of goods.

"Even though the night market is allowed to open, others and the sellers are barred from doing business."

"They feel degraded and do not understand the rationale behind the decision."

"I've been a night market trader for 10 years, but the way the NSC has given different instructions is confusing."

"I could only sell my burgers at a night market, but the way the NSC has limited the number of visitors who can visit is a problem."

"I had to stop selling on the two weeks after the implementation of MCO 2.0 was under an operational monitoring and visitors are allowed to operate," he added.

Clear discrepancies

The green light for night markets to reopen has most traders rejoicing but stall operators in Selangor are puzzled why some local councils have placed obstacles in their path before they can pitch up their tents. >2&3

"Based on the message, we were to start business at the Taman Midah night market on Sunday while other night markets in Klang Jaya would follow suit, depending on their trading days."

Sultan's call to preserve heritage buildings resonates with the rakyat

By WANI MUTHIAH, SHALINI RAVINDRAN and JAROD LIM newsdesk@thestar.com.my

KLANG: The call by the Sultan of Selangor to protect and preserve heritage buildings in Kuala Lumpur, especially those that are linked to Selangor, has been welcomed by many people.

Selangor Council of Justice of Peace president Datuk Loke Fay said the call by Sultan Sharafuddin Idris Shah (pic) was timely.

"There is a need to preserve and save these iconic buildings as they have historical and architectural value," he said yesterday.

Loke said it was also important to preserve these buildings for the younger generation as many were not aware that Kuala Lumpur was part of Selangor prior to being designated a Federal Territory (in 1974).

He also urged Prime Minister Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin to allocate resources to preserve these buildings.

Sultan Sharafuddin had in conjunction with Federal Territory Day called for Kuala Lumpur's heritage buildings to be conserved.

In the statement issued by Istana Alam Shah here, the Ruler said he wanted historical buildings such as Carcosa Seri Negara, the Sultan Abdul Samad Building, Masjid Jamek, St Mary's Cathedral, the Kuala Lumpur railway station, the Keretapi Tanah Melayu Bhd headquarters, the old Istana Negara and Stadium Merdeka to be protected.

He added that many of these buildings, such as the Sultan Abdul Samad Building, had strong links with the state when Kuala Lumpur was Selangor's administrative capital before 1974.

The building also holds a lot of memories for senior lawyers given the courts were located there until the mid-1990s.

Shearn Delamore & Co partner and consultant S. Radhakrishnan, 80, said Sultan Sharafuddin's call to preserve the buildings was very appropriate as they hold a lot of history.

"The High Courts, Supreme Court and later the Appeals Court were located in this block of buildings.

"Many landmark legal decisions were made here," said Radhakrishnan who has retired from legal practice.

"Another building I vividly remember is the Central Market when it was a wet market.

"I used to see the late Toh Puan Bunny Suffian, who was the wife of the then Lord President Tun Suffian's (Tun Mohamed Suffian Mohamed Hashim), buying poultry and fish there by herself," he added.

Malaysian football icon Datuk Soh Chin Aun said he was happy that Sultan Sharafuddin mentioned Stadium Merdeka in the list.

"We had played so many Merdeka tournaments there as well as against many foreign visiting teams. Football legend Diego Maradona had also played in Stadium Merdeka," said Soh, 71.

He said if Stadium Merdeka was not preserved, part of the nation's sporting history would also vanish together with the iconic venue.

Veteran designer Datuk Johan Ariff, who is in his 80s, said that many of the iconic buildings had fallen into disrepair.

"It is indeed timely for Tuanku to have made the call," said Johan, who has designed many of the well-known buildings around Iconic landmark: A general view of the Sultan Abdul Samad Building in the heart of Kuala Lumpur.

Kuala Lumpur.

Heritage expert Datuk Hajeedar Abdul Majid said that there was still time for the authorities to act in conserving the nation's tangible heritage sites.

He said that unless urgent action was taken to sustain and preserve these buildings, they could be gone.

"It was heartening to hear about the Sultan's concern about these iconic heritage buildings and I hope it would prompt immediate conservation efforts," he added.

Hajeedar, who is past president of the International Council on Monuments and Sites Malaysia, added that the buildings were in a sorry state and quickly deteriorating.

"If left abandoned for too long, as some of the buildings have been, rot would set in and this could cause exponential deterioration.

"We need to find new uses for old buildings, but also in keeping with its history as it signifies the progress of the country," he added.

Hajeedar said that the sites were gazetted as national heritage under the National Heritage Act 2005, as such, the owners were obligated to conserve and maintain the buildings.

Kuala Lumpur Tourist Guides Association chairman Edmond Chan urged authorities to not only conserve iconic heritage buildings in Kuala Lumpur, but also old villages and historical sites.

"There are still a lot of places in the capital city that have significant history and values in the formation of Kuala Lumpur into what it is now.

"This includes old villages in Kampung Baru and Brickfields as well as Chinese new villages in Kuala Lumpur.

"Some tourists would go for the history and cultures of the city, which can be seen in these historical areas," he said.

While Chan applauded some owners along Jalan Sultan for restoring pre-war buildings into more modern, tourist landmarks, the authorities should channel more efforts into conserving stretches of historical buildings and turn them into cultural villages.

"For example, most of the houses in Kampung Baru are privately-owned, but there are no specific buildings there to educate visitors on its history and the formation of the Malay enclave.

"The government should also allocate more funds to the conservation of historical buildings and sites," he added.

'Don't handle the produce'

By EDWARD RAJENDRA

CUSTOMERS shopping at the 14 morning markets in Klang are not allowed to dig into the boxes of vegetables and fruits or touch any other items being sold.

They are required to point out the items they want to buy, and the traders will pack the items for the customers.

Four of the markets — Pasar Pagi Eng Ann, Pasar Pagi Lorong Sungai Puloh 13 in Klang Utama, Pasar Pagi Lorong Sepat in Teluk Pulai and Pasar Pagi Jalan Batu Nilam 27 in Bandar Bukit Tinggi — reopened for business yesterday.

Another three — in Jalan Papan, Taman Chi Liung and at Flat Taman Chi Liung — will reopen tomorrow.

Klang Municipal Council (MPK) Licensing and Hawkers Department director Azhar Samsudin said the council decided to allow these daily markets to open from 6am to 11am under strict conditions, where every stall must have a QR code and customers were made to follow the 3S of the standard operating procedure (SOP) — sanitise, screen (body temperature) and scan (QR codes).

Meanwhile, three weekly morning markets will reopen on selected dates — Pasar Pagi Lintang Dato' Tahir will open today, Pasar Pagi Jalan Khoo Kek Kheng on Feb 6 and Jalan Sri Sarawak 18 in Taman Sri Andalas will open on Feb 7.

The reopening of the remaining two daily markets and two weekly markets in the municipality, said

Shoppers lining up to enter the Lorong Sepat morning market in Klang.

MPK, would depend on the SOP compliance rate at the operational markets and the number of Covid-19 cases.

All of the morning markets had been ordered to shut at the start of the second movement control order.

"Morning markets are essential businesses as people get their fresh produce here. This is to support small local businesses and empower the economic engine in an area," said Azhar.

A trader, Yip Peng Peng, 55, who sells traditional Chinese cakes, said open-air wet markets allowed for greater physical distancing, while temporary makeshift stalls enabled flexibility and enhanced cleaning at the end of the business day.

StarMetro visited three of the markets that opened yesterday and found the majority of people complied with the SOP. However, at certain points, it was difficult for customers to practise physical distancing due to the number of people in a given space.

Several customers did not wear the mask properly, either by wearing it under their chin or covering only their mouth and leaving their nose exposed.

There were also customers who insisted on touching and holding the produce while making their selection.

Traders were also seen reminding customers to keep the minimum one-metre distance from each other and wait in line to maintain safe distance.

Azhar said it was hard for people to keep their distance while shopping but it must be done.

"We are in a pandemic mode, but there is a need for people to shop for basic necessities and get goods for Chinese New Year," he added.

MBSA provides bins for bulk waste from CNY spring cleaning

SHAH Alam City Council (MBSA) is providing roll-on roll-off (Roro) bins for residents who are spring-cleaning their homes and want to get rid of bulk waste ahead of the Chinese New Year festival.

"A total of 275 three-tonne Roro bins will be placed, in stages from now until Feb 14, at selected locations in Sections 1 to 36 and Sections U1 to U20 in Shah Alam," said MBSA Corporate and Public Relations Division head Shahrin Ahmad in a statement.

"This service is aimed at providing residents the convenience of disposing bulk waste and selected recyclable materials after their spring clean.

"It is also to educate Shah Alam folk about proper bulk waste management."

MBSA has an assigned schedule for the bin placements.

The Roro bins will be left at a predetermined location for seven days for residents to dispose of their bulk waste but will be removed earlier if they are full.

According to MBSA, the Roro bins are for:

> Bulk waste: table, chair, sofa, cupboard, mattress, bed and other furniture;

> Metal-based items: bicycle,

baby cradle, barbecue equipment and metal drum;

> Glass-based items: aquarium, vase, decorative lamp and chandelier (to be properly wrapped before disposal so that they do not break easily and injure the waste disposal workers); and > Electrical or electronic items: fridge, radio, television, battery charger and mobile phone.

"We hope residents will cooperate by placing their bulk rubbish in the provided bins to facilitate the waste collection and ensure the surrounding area is clean," said Shahrin.

For details, call 03-5510 5133 ext 1316 (MBSA's Solid Waste Management and Public Cleansing Department).

RM2mil in discount vouchers disbursed under Selangor govt CNY e-bazaar initiative

By C.Y LEE
 chenyoong@thestar.com.my

A TOTAL of RM2mil in the form of discount vouchers will be disbursed to small and medium enterprises (SMEs) as well as micro businesses in Selangor under the state government's e-bazaar Chinese New Year campaign.

The campaign is targeting 25,000 small and mid-size enterprises as well as micro businesses, including 12,500 new e-merchants to participate in efforts to soften the effects of the Covid-19 pandemic on businesses.

The vouchers, which will be passed on to consumers by participating merchants, will be divided between the two largest online marketplace platforms in Malaysia, namely Lazada and Shopee.

State investment, industry and commerce, and small and medium enterprises committee chairman Datuk Teng Chang Khim announced that the campaign would run until March 7.

"Like previous rounds of the Selangor E-Bazar campaign, it is to assist SMEs and micro businesses in Selangor in embracing digitalisation to survive in the challenging business environment caused by the Covid-19 pandemic. "With the current reimposition of the movement control order, going digital has never been this urgent for businesses to ensure continuous cash flow," he pointed out.

The campaign is jointly organised by Selangor Information Technology and Digital Economy Corporation Sdn Bhd and Invest Selangor.

Teng said the campaign would only be for businesses registered in Selangor and urged them to take advantage of it.

"The Selangor E-Bazar CNY campaign provides a safe marketplace for people to discover popular festive goods and food, including mandarin oranges, biscuits and hampers."

Teng said the campaign would hopefully help to ensure Chinese New Year can still be celebrated in the right spirit, albeit in a different way.

"We may not be able to go back to our hometowns this year but buying gifts through the E-Bazar platform shows that our affection for our parents, family and friends will never be disrupted, even by the pandemic," he added.

Teng also said the state government remained committed to the digitalisation agenda in assisting

Teng urges registered businesses to take advantage of the state government's initiative.

SMEs, micro-SMEs and merchants to go digital.

"According to recent research by e-Conomy SEA, which was launched by Google and Temasek, Malaysia's digital economic growth saw a 6% increase in 2020 with US$11.4bil (RM46.08bil) compared to US$10.7bil (RM43.25bil) in 2019.

"The gross merchandise value (GMV) of Malaysia's digital economy is expected to grow to US$30bil (RM121.27bil) by 2025.

"Local businesses should make full use of this so that they can increase their income further while increasing our GMV," said Teng.

Following the two rounds of Selangor E-Bazar campaigns in 2020, SMEs generated a total of RM1.39bil in ripple effect to the economy through direct sales worth RM43.76mil from the total of RM3mil in vouchers channelled by the state government.

Ways to silence the noisy revs of errant motorbike riders

I REFER to the letter "Menace of motorcycle noise" (The Star, Jan 29), which highlighted the issue of noise pollution caused by errant motorcyclists on highways located near housing areas.

I think majority of the public, myself included, would totally agree with the writer's views about this noise being a menace to society.

However, most just suffer in silence and accept it as "part of life" because they think there is nothing they can do about it.

The source of the problem, of course, is the crowds of mat rempit who do not care about the well-being of others as they rev up their motorcycle engines to unbearable noise levels while taking part in illegal street racing or showing off stunts on their machines.

Residents at Puncak Damansara Condo and the surrounding areas in Kayu Ara, Petaling Jaya are also affected by this menace.

I have noticed that there are at least five motorcycle workshops at the single row of shops outside Puncak Damansara Condo and another two or three nearby.

Why are so many motorcycle workshops allowed to operate in this area? Workshops that just repair motorcycles are fine, but two or three of these premises are outlets selling accessories/kits for bike modification.

These shops will indirectly contribute to the menace of motorcycle noise pollution as they provide the means for the mat rempit to modify their machine's exhaust pipes to achieve the revs required for the thrill factor.

I strongly suggest that the authorities (police and local authorities, in this case the Petaling Jaya City Council) take proactive measures to tackle the problem and bring some peace to residents of all the areas affected by this noise pollution. This can be done by, among others:

- 1) Restricting the number of shops selling motorcycle modification kits in residential areas. These shops should actually be located in other commercial areas such as shopping malls;
- 2) Enforcing the relevant laws strictly and acting immediately upon receiving complaints from the public. Impose a jail term or a stiff fine on repeat offenders; and
- 3) Educating and rehabilitating the offenders.

The police and local authorities must carry out frequent patrols on highways that are popular race tracks for the mat rempit, especially areas with low- to medium-cost flats where the population density is higher.

I sincerely hope the authorities will not sit back while the silent majority is suffering.

FEB 12 CELEBRATION

Selangor govt to hold 'virtual CNY open house'

FARAH SOLHI
 KUALA LUMPUR
 news@nst.com.my

SADDED by the inability to gather physically for Chinese New Year celebration, the Selangor government has decided to hold its annual open house virtually this year.

State executive council (exco) member Datuk Teng Chang Khim said the virtual celebration would take place on Feb 12 at 9pm, which is the first day of the Chinese New Year.

"Traditionally, the Chinese New Year celebration is one of the biggest festivities around the world, including in our country, together with Aidilfitri, Deepavali and Christmas celebrations.

"We are disheartened to have been unable to hold a physical Chinese New Year open house this year. However, we believe it is a sacrifice for the community's sake.

"We welcome members of the public to come and join the first ever virtual Chinese New Year celebration by tuning in to Selangor Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Amirudin Shari's Facebook page, at @amirudinbinshari.

"We have lined up several entertainment segments from talk shows to live traditional music performance, in collaboration with professional and world-class performers.

"We believe by celebrating virtually this year, it will have its own advantages because everybody, regardless of race and religion, can join the celebration. They can watch the live performances from the comfort of their homes," Teng told the press yesterday.

the Investment Standing Committee, Industry and Commerce and Small and Medium Enterprises (SME) portfolio.

He said preparations for the virtual celebration cost about RM414,000.

He said the state government had come up with the celebration's theme of a "New Year, New Hope".

"After looking back at what we have gone through together last year, with having to face Covid-19, and staying at home for almost a year... we believe this is the best theme that represents it as with a new year, comes new hope."

He urged for Selangor folk to strictly comply with the standard operating procedures (SOP) at all times.

"It is worrying to see the number of cases spike in the last two weeks, as well as the number of people fined for not following the rules. Please take care of yourself and your families."

He said the state government had launched an online campaign called "Chinese New Year Wish and Win", which aimed to pick the three best Chinese New Year wishes.

"This is the first time that the state government is holding a mass virtual festivity celebration and we want to make the most of it. The online campaign will run from Jan 24 until Feb 3. We have been receiving hundreds of entries.

"Three winners will be picked and each are entitled to win RM168 worth of ang pao. The amount was chosen because of its significant meaning (in the Mandarin language), which means 'leading a prosperous life'."

The virtual celebration will showcase 12 entertainment performances, with 68 minutes of live broadcast on the Facebook platform.

Online celebration for Chinese New Year in Selangor

SHAH ALAM: Selangor will organise its state-level Chinese New Year celebrations online via social media platforms on Feb 12.

State Investment, Industry and Commerce, and Small and Medium Enterprises (SME) chairman Datuk Teng Chang Khim said the celebration, themed "New Year, New Hope" (Tahun Baru, Harapan Baru), will be broadcast on the Selangor menteri besar Facebook page and online media on the first day of the celebration at 9pm.

He said the virtual celebration was due to the current Covid-19 situation where major events and mass gatherings were not allowed.

"It will also provide a positive impact on other communities in Selangor as they can also enjoy the shows," he said in a virtual press conference yesterday.

The virtual celebration is seen as the best alternative in line with the new norm as the Chinese community will be able to enjoy the festive season in their respective homes.

The programme, costing RM414,000, will feature 12 performances, including singing, dancing and cultural shows involving international dance groups.

Commenting on the theme, Teng said it was to inspire the community that has been hit by the pandemic for over a year.

"This is an important celebration for the Chinese community and we can renew our resolutions to break free from Covid-19," he added. - Bernama

Selangor govt goes online for CNY celebration

The virtual celebration is the best alternative for the Chinese community to celebrate the new year, says state exco

by ASILA JALIL

THE Selangor state government's Chinese New Year (CNY) celebration this year will be held online due to the resurgence in Covid-19 infections in the country, replacing physical celebrations that were usually held previously.

Selangor state executive councillor (exco) for investment, industry and commerce, and small and medium enterprises (SMEs) Datuk Teng Chang Khim said the virtual celebration, which will take place on Feb 12, 2021, is the best alternative for the Chinese community to celebrate the new year amid the new normal.

"We have had physical open houses, but this year we have prepared a special virtual programme as the Covid-19 pandemic does not allow us to hold huge ceremonies in the country," he said in a virtual press briefing yesterday.

The special programme can be streamed via Selangor Mentri

Pic by Muid Amin Naphual
 I am confident that the govt will allow for a small gathering between family members at home to celebrate CNY, but I hope everyone will comply with the SOPs, says Teng

Besar Datuk Seri Amirudin Shari's Facebook page, as well as several other media organisations' pages who have partnered Invest Selangor to showcase the hour-long programme.

It will begin at 9pm and consists of 12 performances, including lion dance, horse dance, puppet and opera show.

Teng said the total cost for the celebration stands at RM414,000.

In conjunction with the celebration, the state government also holds a competition for creative CNY wishes which will end on Thursday.

Three creative wishes will be selected on Feb 9 and the winners will each receive a cash prize of RM168.

"I am confident that the government will allow for a small gathering between family members at home to celebrate CNY, but I hope everyone will comply with the standard operating procedures (SOPs) even if a small gathering is allowed.

"We have to follow the SOPs to help curb the spread of Covid-19 infections. A lot of people are still not complying with the SOPs, which is reflected by the amount of fines issued daily to those who have breached the restrictions," said Teng.

Meanwhile, SMEs and micro-businesses are now able to register on both Shopee and Lazada platforms for the Selangor E-Bazar CNY Campaign, which will end on March 7, 2021.

The programme — which aims to assist small businesses to embrace digitalisation during the pandemic — enables SMEs to enjoy discounts worth RM2 million allocated by the Selangor state government.

A total of 25,000 SMEs are expected to participate in the bazaar, including 12,500 new sellers.

SMEs previously generated RM1.39 billion in ripple effect to the economy through direct sales worth RM43.76 million from the total of RM3 million in vouchers channelled by the state government from two e-Bazar campaigns last year.

雪政府逾 41万制作 线上春晚年初一首播

(莎阿南 1 日讯) 雪兰莪州政府首破天荒，耗资 41 万 4500 令吉精心制作《金牛迎春新期望》线上春晚特备节目，并于大年初一（2 月 12 日）晚上九时在全球首播，与民同庆新春！

由于国内冠病疫情严峻，州政府今年无法如往年般举办新春大团拜，因此将通过线上方式，在主要平台州务大臣中文面簿专页直播，以及超过 30 个媒体与社交平台转播，

好让民众可感受浓浓新春气息。

鼓励民众在家过年

雪州行政议员拿督邓章钦今天召开线上记者会说，线上迎春活动也配合新常态，鼓励民众待在家里过年，一起阻断疫情蔓延，同时让无法回家过年的游子，以及努力抗疫的马来西亚子民感受节庆的气氛。

他说，为了让民众更有参

与感，州政府也配合节目推出“好想和你过新年”贺年卡寄送活动，希望大家不仅仅是作为一名观众，同时也可以参与推动活动，寄送实体贺年卡给远方的朋友。

民众只需在雪州大臣的面

簿中文专页阿米留言，写下给家人或朋友的新年祝福语，首 100 个留言的朋友将收到雪州政府寄出的贺年卡，而贺语写得最好的 3 位参与者，也将获得 168 令吉的现金红包。

“好想和你过新年”贺年卡寄送活动参与截止日期是 2 月 3 日晚上 11 点 59 分，而得奖名单将于 2 月 9 日公布。

陪同出席者包括雪州投资促进机构总执行长拿督哈山及企业公关主任阿末凯鲁。

邀各领域专业团体演出

邓章钦指出，整个特制节目皆诚邀各领域专业团体参与演出，包括音乐、华乐和西洋

乐器、歌唱、舞狮和文艺表演等，演出绝对有一定高水准。

“州政府于去年底拍板定案，通过拍摄特备节目取代过去的新春大团拜活动，这也是全所未有的举措。”

他说，州政府原本计划通过公家电视台播放，惟却不获该电视台支持，因此便改成线上直播。

“节目也将安排雪州大臣拿督斯里阿米鲁丁、全体行政议员和公众，在文娱节目结束后发表新春祝贺语和感言，为华人社会献上新年祝福。”

他指出，此特备节目有 12 个重点节目，集合了 6 个表演团体和 55 名本地艺人和艺术表演者，手集团创办人吴圣雄为艺术总监，并由本地广告兼微电影导演蔡荻蔚（Dick Chua）执导。

市會准原地營業 雙溪龍鎮早市小販不必搬

(加影31日讯) 早前掀波的双溪龙镇旧早市搬迁事件暂告一段落，该巴刹小販获准可在原处继续营业！

加影市议员林金瑛今早特前往该早市为小販们捎来此消息。她表示，经加影州议员许来贤与加影市议会主席昨日商讨及多方考量后，当局决定让早市小販在原处继续营业，直到新巴刹建设为止。新巴刹预计须耗时两年半时间才能完成，即2023年年中。

她提到，许来贤也已发出文告，促早市小販和业者在行动管制令期间，一定要遵守所有防疫标准作业程序。

感谢各方帮助

双溪龙镇旧早市小商公会顾问法德希尔和主席林凤君也对此结果感满意，相信所有小販能在此“安居乐业”，并感谢各方在此期间给予的帮助和支持。

该早市目前有多达96名在该处摆档超过20年的小販和业者，行管令期间

■林金瑛（右二起）向林凤君捎来喜讯，早市小販们都对此消息感满意。右为加影市议员黄声宾。

的营业时间为早上6时至中午12时，每逢周一关闭消毒。

此外，巫统雪州联委会主席丹斯里诺奥马和大马中小型企业家联盟组织（IKHLAS）主席莫哈末里祖安也前往该早市巡视，并对早市小販无须搬迁获准在原处营业的结果认同。

诺奥马提到，该早市的搬迁风波越演越烈，已影响小販生计，相关单位不应有别的组织或党派介入，及小販居民激烈表达强烈不满后，才有此结论。

他认为，在这疫情艰难期间，加上

国家紧急状态，这样的指示（要求小販搬迁）并不合适，雪州政府应停止伤害商民的举动。

他强调，类似事件已非第一次发生，这些事情都是可避免的。

莫哈末里祖安则声称，有部分小販对此结果心存怀疑；因此，他希望这项结果不会在不久的将来出现变卦。

他认为，巴刹搬迁风波中含政治因素，涉及的对象为争权，导致商民小販成受害者，在第三方介入之后才决定做出让步，同意小販业者继续在原处营业。（TKM）

■雪州苏丹沙拉弗丁上传一张，吉隆坡苏丹阿都沙末大厦于1900年的个人收藏旧照，提醒当局应对吉隆坡的历史建筑物，做好维护和保养。

雪蘇丹：免令國家損失 隆歷史建築應妥善修護

(沙亚南31日讯)雪州苏丹沙拉弗丁殿下希望，有关当局可妥善维护和保养在吉隆坡的历史性建筑，尤其是一些历史悠久的建筑物和雪州历史息息相关的。

殿下通过雪州王室脸书专页，发表每年2月1日联邦直辖区日献词时说，若一直忽视这些历史遗迹和建筑物却不尽早维护，一旦受损甚至坍塌，后果恐无法挽回。届时，修复成本会更高，也会令国家蒙受损失。

殿下提及，联邦直辖区

部、国家遗产局和吉隆坡市政局，有必要更积极维护这些历史性建筑。

殿下表示，首都多数历史价值高的建筑已成旅游景点，如1897年落成的苏丹阿都沙末大厦。

在殿下回忆中，吉隆坡在1974年之前作为雪州首府，苏丹阿都沙末大厦则为雪州政府行政中心（州秘书署），殿下曾于1968年担任雪州政府公务员。

“国家迎宾馆（Carcosa Seri

Negara）、占美清真寺、圣玛丽亚教堂（Gereja St Mary）、吉隆坡旧火车站与马来亚铁道公司总部、旧国家王宫、默迪卡体育场等历史性建筑，都与建国史有关，且多数与雪州早期历史有密切关系。”

“吉隆坡一带矗立许多摩尔式（Moorish）与莫卧儿（Moghul）建筑风格的历史建筑物，各拥有自己的历史，理应受保护和珍惜，以受未来世代的景仰。”
